

lifestyle: SPORTS

TEE Time

Hot Golf Gear

Even if your game is not up to par with that of MCI Heritage competitors, why not give yourself every advantage possible, and look good doing it!

Visit these web sites for more information:

- www.almostgolf.com
  - www.callawaygolf.com
  - www.clevelandgolf.com
  - www.nikegolf.com
  - www.adamsgolf.com
  - www.footjoy.com
  - www.ecco.com
- Blanche L. Tomaszewski

AlmostGolf offers a new "training" ball that you can use indoors or out.

FootJoy's E-Comfort shoes are available in several classic styles for the ladies.

FootJoy's E-Comfort pictured above combines high-tech comfort with a classic tennis shoe look for the ladies.

Nike presents hot new irons that offer "Slingshot" action.

Ecco enters the golf shoe market with a festive new ladies shoe that boasts unprecedented comfort.

Ecco offers comfortable, funky styles for the men, too.

Nike's Ignite Driver offers "unequalled control and workability," plus greater distance and forgiveness.

Callaway's sequel to the ProV1, the HX Tour Black is reportedly even longer than its predecessor.

Cleveland's new 460 driver promises to produce exceptional carry, greater roll and higher launch angles.

Callaway's new ERC Fusion Driver features a forged titanium clubface and a carbon composite body.

The new Ovation fairway woods by Adams feature an offset/low profile design.

Nike's CPR woods are designed for long, accurate shots from the tee, the rough or the fairway.

PHOTOS COURTESY FEATURED MANUFACTURERS