Holiday Guide 2004

kind of music the young person likes. If they are a fan of country music, and you get them a Britney Spears CD, you probably won't see that anticipated rush of excitement you would like to see on Christmas Day.

For the adults on your list, tickets to a game for their favorite sports team is a great choice. If they have a sport or hobby that is of great interest, use that as inspiration to stuff their stocking. For example, if a man or woman on your list likes golf, get them a sleeve of their favorite brand of golf balls. If you have a real handyman or woman on your list, get them a charger for their favorite drill, some nails, etc. Take time to investigate what they have, what they want, etc. The effort you put into picking out their stocking stuffers will make them feel appreciated.

For the ladies, make them feel pampered with a gift certificate to a favorite
